

Frank E Haschka is an award winning full-time professional magician. With an extensive corporate background and marketing experience, his understanding and appreciation of the professional world makes him a natural choice for clients and event organisers.

Frank's friendly relaxed style puts clients and guests at ease; his entertainment fitting equally well both at small intimate events and larger high profile occasions.

Having performed alongside Paul Daniels, and being mentored by the top professionals in the magical world, the benefits of Frank's services are increasingly sought after. His unique skills were recently demonstrated in his role as Gala Show Director for the inaugural Cardiff Day of Magic held at Cardiff International Arena.

Client feedback:

"The sign of a class act is when the audience can't stop talking about it afterwards and that is exactly what happened last night."

Cardiff St.Davids Rotary Club

"A big THANKS for being our very own magician. Everyone was bowled over with the magic you were performing...all wondering "How did he do that" it certainly was 'right before your eyes'!! We'd like to make an advance booking for next year."

The Eve Appeal at the National Museum Cardiff

"WHERE DID ALL THOSE LEMONS COME FROM !!?!!"

Cottrell Park Golf Club

"A very big THANK YOU from all of us at Markes International. We would certainly recommend you to other companies."

Markes International

"Frank is one of the best we have worked with - he met our brief brilliantly and not only entertained but created a real 'Wow!' where our clients were still talking about the magic well after the event."

Andy Green, partner GREEN communications

Providing close-up and cabaret magic for many types of corporate, private, social and charity events, coupled with a commitment to giving a top class service on every occasion, Frank's ice-breaking and profile-raising entertainment brings people together and gets them talking, thinking, wanting more and – very importantly - remembering the event. Bespoke effects are often imaginatively designed, guaranteeing a truly unique and memorable event.
